The Same "Old Prices" for Linens & Beddings

Probably the most notable wedding which has taken place in southern Maryland was solemnized at high noon Thursday of last week at Chaptico, St. Mary's county, the contracting parties being Miss Josephine Garner and Mr. Truman Slinguff. The quaint old village of Chaptico, St. Mary's county, was the scene of the auspicious event, which attracted a host of friends of the young couple from all over the state. The ceremony took place in All Saints' Episcopal Church of that place, an edifice beautiful in its antiquity and numbering among its parishioners many of the old families of the Terrapin state. The church was decorated elaborately with white and pink chrysanthemums. The bride, magnificently gowned in white satin, was escorted to the altar by her father, Billingsley Garner, esq. The bridesmaids, Miss Josephine U. Garner, Miss Wade H. Garner and Mr. Truman Slinguff.
